

SSNCT Enrichment Opportunities

Location	Details
Art Institute of Chicago	Enormous art museum covering ancient to contemporary art and everything in between. Open 11:00am - 5:00pm            Cost per person: $32            Add-On: $5 Fridah Kahlo's Month in Paris
Field Museum of Natural History	Enormous museum focusing on biology, minerals, natural history, paleontology, and anthropology (ancient Egypt and modern Africa) Open 9:00am - 5:00pm            Cost per person: $30            Add-Ons: $10 each for any of Africa Fashion; Cats: Predators to Pets (including a photo of my friends' cat); and Underground Adventure
Museum of Science and Industry	Science and Industry museum; large, with exhibits covering technology, industrial production, physics and chemistry, and some technological history Open 9:30am - 4:00pm            Cost per person: $26            Add-On: $18 U-Boat tour (subject to availability)
Adler Planetarium	Planetarium with astronomy-themed learning displays and astronomy history exhibits. May be more focused on children's education than some other options on the list. Open 9:00am - 4:00pm            Cost per person: $25            Cost per person with one Sky Show: $32
Museum of Contemporary Art	"Downtown museum showcasing post-World War II paintings, sculptures, photos, videos &amp; performances." - Google. For full disclosure, I don't recognize much of anything in this museum from quizbowl. Open 10:00am - 5:00pm            Cost per person: $22
Shedd Aquarium	Aquarium featuring all the hits, including sharks, belugas, penguins, otters, turtles, and just so many fish. May be more focused on children's education than some other options on the list. Open 9:00am - 5:00pm            Cost per person: $20
Institute for the Study of Ancient Cultures	Museum of ancient cultures focusing on "Egypt, Nubia, Persia, Mesopotamia, Syria, Anatolia, and the Levant" on the campus of the University of Chicago. This trip includes a walk-by of Frank Lloyd Wright's Robie House. Open 10:00am - 8:00pm            Cost per person: $15 (reservation in advance required)
Museum of Contemporary Photography	Photography gallery and museum at Columbia College Chicago. Tourable permanent collections include Fundamentals of Photography, Portraiture, Constructed and Staged Imagery, Landscape and Place, Queering the Image, Photography as Social Practice, and Picturing Chicago. Open 10:00am - 5:00pm            Cost per person: Free            Docent-led tour may be scheduled if we do so Friday